

CAMP BETTY CAMPOUT

July 22-24, 2005 ~ Northern California

FEMALE ARTISTS WANTED

TO DECORATE THE FIRST ANNUAL
CAMP BETTY CAMPOUT!

Calling all female artists! Camp Betty Campout is looking for a few good artists...ok, actually, we'd love to have a ton of talented, fun, energetic female artists come help create something amazing! We need to create, decorate and adorn the space that is to become Camp Betty Campout, the first annual Northern California music festival. We have 35 acres, three stages, a kids' area, a healing center, a Native American cultural village, vending areas, riverfront area, theme camps and all the spaces in between.

We need all types of artists, including, but not limited to, sculptors, painters, paper mache artists, folk artists, set designers...anyone who wants to give their creative energy to designing the look and feel of the first annual Camp Betty Campout, July 22-24, 2005. In return, you get fame, glory and free tickets to the festival!

Artists will be working with the Camp Betty Campout production staff, coming up with themes for the different areas of the festival and helping to implement design ideas. If this sounds like fun to you, please contact site decorations co-coordinator April Cooper via e-mail at april@campbettycampout.com or call (707) 444-9737.

For more information about Camp Betty Campout, please check out our website at www.campbettycampout.com, or contact Jennefer White at (707) 442-3607 or jen@campbettycampout.com.

This is not a call for gallery art...yet! Please keep looking at the Camp Betty Campout website, www.campbettycampout.com, for artist submission requests.
